Policy Statement

It is the policy of the Keewatin-Patricia District School Board to provide programs as a way to help First Nations, Métis and Inuit students who experience gaps in their education by putting into place measures that respond to particular needs. All First Nations, Métis and Inuit students and their parents have the right to voluntarily self-identify so that they may receive supportive programming and instructional practices that better serve the First Nations, Métis and Inuit learner. The first such measure in recognizing this right is to establish self-identification procedures to identify, collect and aggregate student achievement data for First Nations, Métis and Inuit students.

Definition

- Aboriginal identification refers to the definition in the Constitution Act, 1982, Section 35 (2) in that “Aboriginal peoples” include “Indian, Inuit and Métis”.
- The identification used by the KPDSB will disaggregate for First Nations, Inuit, and Métis.

Rationale

The learning aspirations and potentials of First Nations, Métis and Inuit students can be realized through a responsive, transparent and accountable policy that focuses on improved programs and services and builds on strong partnerships with First Nations, Métis and Inuit parents and their communities. Student achievement data needs to be collected and aggregated related to the performance of First Nations, Métis and Inuit students. This is to determine whether programs currently delivered offer similar opportunities for success as for other students. Continued data collection and analysis will provide information for future decision-making surrounding First Nations, Métis and Inuit student success.

The Keewatin-Patricia District School Board has established the following goals for First Nations, Métis and Inuit education within its jurisdiction:
